

Enabling smart transactions for all BSC DeFi projects on decentralized exchanges.

INTRODUCTION

One of the problems cryptocurrencies came to solve is the high transaction fees associated with traditional financial systems. So, it is ironic seeing this problem rear its ugly head in the cryptocurrency space.

PROBLEM

The rise in Ethereum use cases created a problem:
high gas fees.

These high gas fees make it impossible for traders to perform and complete transactions with ERC-20 projects over the Ethereum network.

THE SOLUTION

The Binance Smart Chain offers a flexible platform for developing high-performance decentralized applications. It is a blockchain optimized for fast trading and low network fees.

However, users have no access to tools to get real-time data on pools, liquidity, and volumes on BSC. This is the lacuna CakeTools has come to fill.

THE PRODUCT

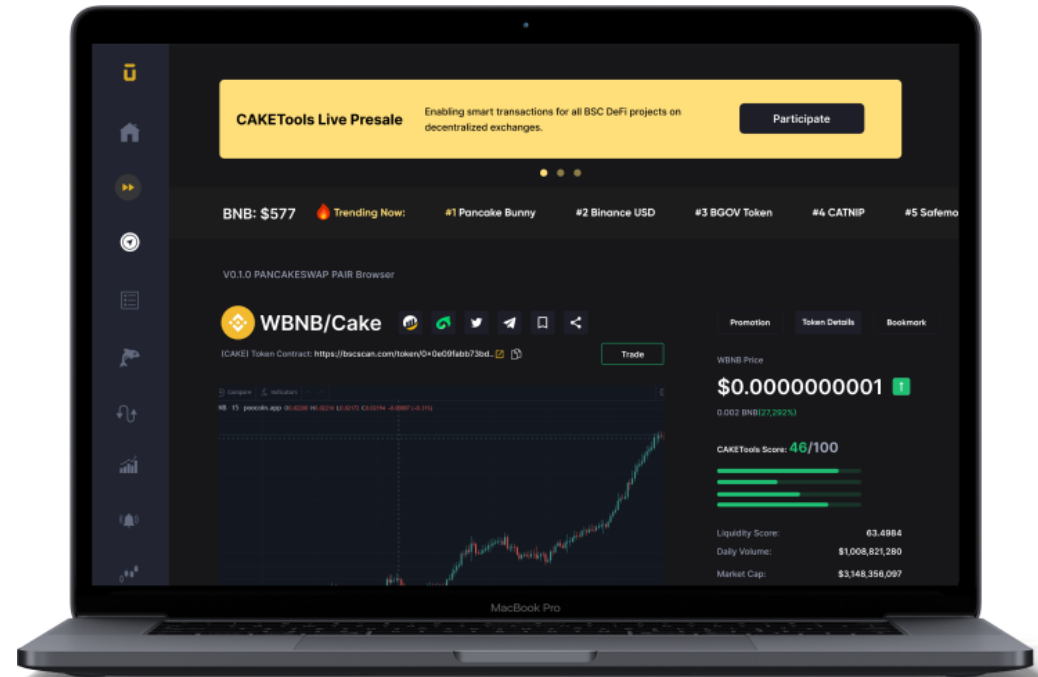

Cake Tools provides the community with data aggregated from all decentralized exchanges on Binance Smart Chain. Users can leverage our product to analyze market movements, track the growth of BSC projects, and develop profitable investment strategies.

Cake Tools will align with the dynamism of the market to ensure that its functionalities continuously improve to meet user needs

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

We aim to provide and maintain standard tools for DEX trading that would enable BSC users to

- Fetch real-time data analysis
- Get real-time market movements
- Search and provide information about listed pairs on exchanges like PancakeSwap, Apeswap and BakerySwap and more
- See liquidity levels and Lots more.

CAKETOOLS TOKEN (CKT)

CKT is the native token of cakertools.io, which will be used to unlock the full features of our DApp. Unlike many DeFi projects, CKT will transcend being an idea on a white paper to a digital asset with real use cases.
